

What is koopstadt?

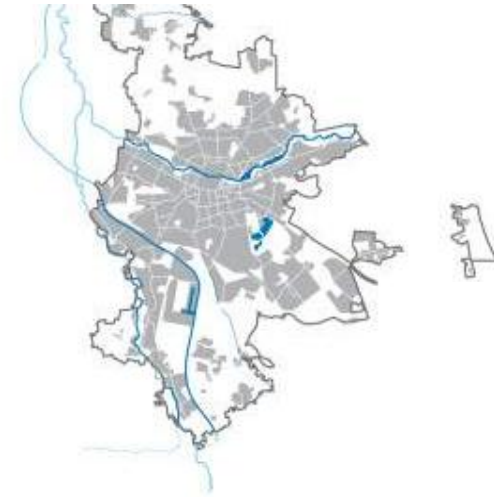

Bremen

Leipzig

Nuremberg

In the context of integrated urban development:

- cooperation of three cities between 2007 - 2015
- a platform for interaction, to reflect future topics face to face,
- catalyst and engine to drive on and strengthen own processes

Categories and Projectfamilies

Categories	Economic innovation, creative environments and participation	Transformation sites as part of the city	Creative conquering of space		Projectfamilies
	Regional co-operation, spatial interlinking and new areas of activity	City is region	Space for culture and creative industries	Interim use as a normal stage of urban development
	Urban quality of life, ecological transition and social cohesion	Education in the urban district	Water region	Strengthening the inner city
				Climate-friendly, sustainable urban and district development

focus 2013 - 2015

Working formats

face to face

workshops

conferences

excursions

events

Main focus 2013 – 2015: „Coaching und Reflexion“

e.g.:

- Housing policy concept Leipzig
- District concept Bremen West
- Energy use plan Nuremberg

procedure:

- Participation and input at local event
- Common substantive and methodological analysis
- Recommendations for the further process
- If necessary: internships

Transmission of ideas / strategies

2006: mobil.punkt in Bremen

2014: mobility station in Leipzig 2015: first station in Nuremberg?

2011: Energy use plan: Nuremberg

Result of workshops: Inclusion of social aspects and lower level strategies

lessons learned

- Multi-annual cooperation with stable staff required
- Methodological approaches transferable with few financial resources
 - Coaching + reflection
 - Methodics of the workshops
- External moderation even at low number of Cities
- Clear definition of objectives of all partners required

