

EU Incubation Centre

EUPIC , EU Project Innovation Centre is a non-governmental organization set-up to facilitate business and technology cooperation between EU countries and China.

- Founded in 2006
- Among Chengdu Hi-Tech Zone, EUPIC and European organizations
- Facilitation of technological, trade and investment partnership between EU and China
- 2,200sqm of office, conference, leisure and business functions
- Entertained 50 European SMEs and organizations
- Collaboration with over 600 organizations from 28 EU member countries

Hardware

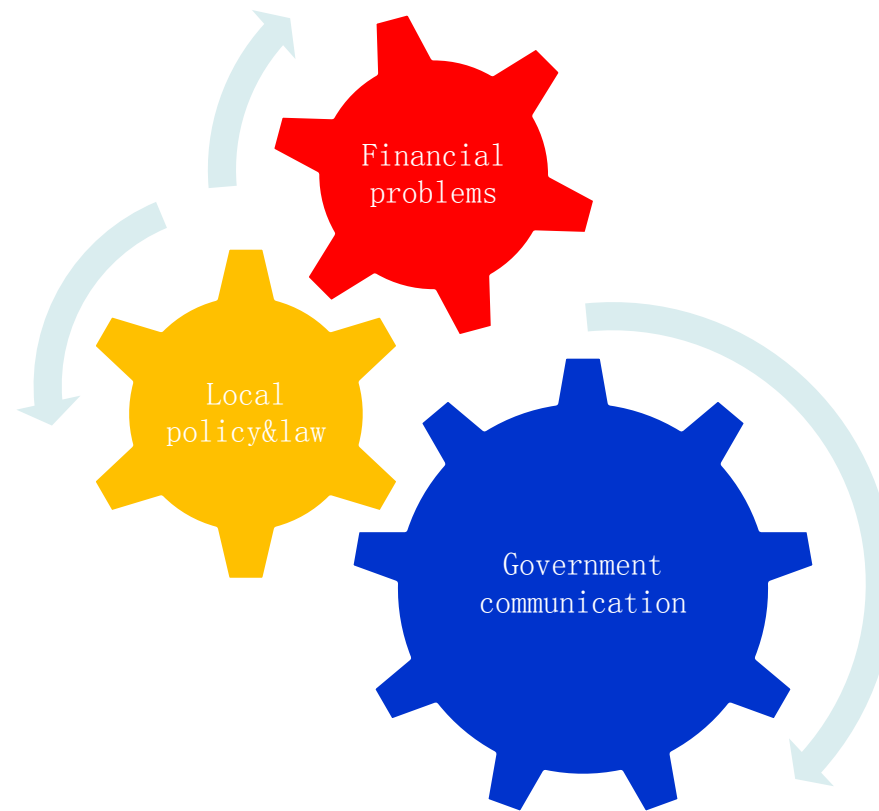

Office
Meeting Room
Show Zone
Rest Zone

Services

- Company and organization registration, annual auditing
- Advisory on Chinese laws, policies on investment, trading and technology, etc.
- Assistance with HR issues
- Publicity via different media of technology, business and project information from these companies and organizations
- Help with liaison with government bodies, enterprises and industrial associations
- Help with hosting of promotion conferences, round-tables and seminars
- Assistance with market research, consultancy & appraisal, project collaboration, technology transfer, etc.

Challenges:

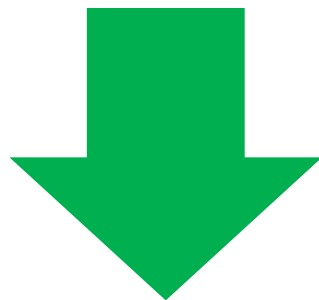

Currently, 15 organizations and businesses in place

- Austrian Commercial Chengdu Office
- CCI PARIS IDF Chengdu Office
- German Chamber of Commerce in China--South and Southwest China
- CCIFC Chengdu Office
- Montpellier Méditerranée Métropole
- Horsens Municipality in Chengdu. Denmark
- Representative Office of the Lodzkie Region and the City of Lodz in Chengdu
- Project Office for Sichuan-NRW Agricultural Cooperation
- GDF Suez (Chengdu)
- PD International Aktiengesellschaft Chengdu Office
- Sensor-Nite (Chengdu) Co., Ltd.
- Sparkle Jade Ltd.
- Eurocopter China
- M2M (Chengdu) Co., Ltd. France
- TenCate Corporate Chengdu Office

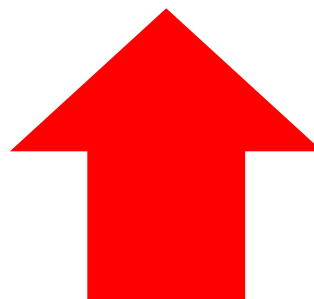

Lessons:

Good practice: Listen

Shortcomings: after services

As a non-governmental organization, how to combine the necessary resources that practitioners are requiring?

How deep should institution get involved into start-up

