Agenda

Local Stakeholder Meeting on "Low Carbon Mobility Planning for Chiang Mai", focusing on old town revitalization

Organized by Chiangmai Municipality and Connective Cities

14th February, 2018

09.00-09.30	Registration
09.30-09.45	Welcome remarks: Chiang Mai Municipality
	Introduction to Connective Cities: by Dr. Manfred Poppe, Senior Project Manager, Community of Practice for Sustainable Urban Development, GIZ
	Introduction to TUMI - Transformative Urban Mobility Initiative: by Jan Rickmeyer, GIZ
09.45-10.00	Review the results of last year's local planning workshop by Mr. Trinnawat Suwanprik, Sanitary Researcher, Chiang Mai Municipality
10.00-10.30	Group discussion on expectations of local stakeholders towards a project proposal to improve the old town's functionality for walkers and cyclists, facilitated by Dr. Chuthatip Maneepong
10.30-10.45	Morning refreshment
10.45-12.00	Group discussion in the following issues:

- Awareness raising on health, emission, noise and others to public, local schools, local enterprises including law enforcement and rule/regulations, facilitated by Dr. Chuthatip Maneepong
- Facilitating walkers and cyclists, facilitated by Dr. Nirandorn Potikanond, Advisor of Sunday Cycling Club of Chiang Mai
- Local economic and tourism promotion, facilitated by Mr. Pirath, Chamber of Commerce
- Public transportation, facilitated by Dr. Lamduan and Mr. Trinnawat Suwanprik, Sanitary Researcher, Chiang Mai Municipality

12.00-13.00	Lunch break

| 13.00-14.30 | Next steps: A local planning process to get started with the project, facilitated by Dr. Chuthatip Maneepong |

- List of related existing and pipeline projects/programs/activities
- How to integrate with existing and pipeline projects/programs/ activities
- New initiatives such as pilot areas of Green Old Town area (Prachathipok Road)
- Future opportunities and means for further collaboration including Connective Cities, Transformative Urban Mobility Initiative

| 14.30-15.00 | Meeting summary and closing remarks |

| 15.00 | Afternoon refreshment and departure |